

5.12.040 Suspension or Revocation.

A business license may be suspended or revoked by the Planning Commission if any of the following conditions are found:

- A. Maintenance and operation of a business in a manner not consistent with the business license issued or the findings and conditions of the conditional use permit;
- B. Maintenance and operation of a business in a manner conflicting with the plans and laws of the City;
- C. Maintenance and operation of a business in a manner causing police, fire, health or nuisance problems;
- D. Failure to comply with any provision or provisions of the municipal code or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto related to the licensing of the business;
- E. Failure to pay license tax after being sent two written notices stating the tax is due;
- F. That the licensee, or the licensee's employees or agents have engaged in the practice of unfair, unjust, inequitable, illegal or fraudulent acts or practices in connection with the business or on the business premises. (Ord. 88-2 § 3 (Exh. C), 1988).

5.12.050 Suspension or Revocation of Licenses – Hearing.

- A. In the event that a majority of the Planning Commission determines that the best interest of the City would be served by consideration of the suspension or revocation of any existing business license, a hearing may be held as provided in this section.
- B. Not less than 10 days before the date of the hearing, a notice of hearing shall be served upon the person or person's agent involved in the contemplated action by the Planning Commission. Service may be made by mailing such notice to the last known address or the most recent address furnished to the City by the person responsible or involved.
- C. The vote of a majority of the Planning Commission shall be required for action at a hearing.
- D. The actions of the Planning Commission shall be final and conclusive from and after the expiration of five working days from the date of the action of the Planning Commission, unless an appeal to the City Council has been filed pursuant to Chapter 17.50 CMC. (Ord. 2000-06 § 4, 2000; Ord. 88-2 § 3 (Exh. C), 1988).
