

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Ian Martin <REDACTED>

Date: Tue, Oct 11, 2022 at 9:38 AM

Subject: Carmel: Seeing Modernism Through the Trees

To: <bswanson@ci.carmel.ca.us>, <vbeach@post.harvard.edu>, <djschmitz51@hotmail.com>, <donaldgoodhue@comcast.net>, <maryann@studioschicketanz.com>, <hbillig@sbcglobal.net>, <mlepage47@gmail.com>, <dpotter@ci.carmel.ca.us>, <bobbyrichards6@gmail.com>, <kferlito@ci.carmel.ca.us>, <jeff@baronanddangelo.org>, <ctheis@ci.carmel.ca.us>, <erik@dyararchitecture.com>, <crerig@ci.carmel.ca.us>, <mary@carmelpinecone.com>

Hi Everyone,

This foggy morning provided the perfect opportunity to photograph the Carl Cherry Center, a Modernist building that is unquestionably appropriate to Carmel-by-the-Sea's human scale, forested context. It's an excellent example of how modern architecture can fit beautifully into our village's natural setting. The Cherry even has a flat roof.

(Brandon, please forward to the PC and HRB. Thanks!)

—Ian Martin

--

IAN MARTIN wedding photojournalism

<REDACTED>

<http://ianmartinphotography.com>

Follow Ian on Instagram: ianmartinweddingphotoj

Read his reviews on Wedding Wire

